Dedication Prayer

Today we dedicate ourselves to Virtue.
As individuals and as a congregation.
Today we promise to show Compassion.
As a person and as a society.
Today we will show
Justice.
From ourselves and our organizations.
Today we go forth with Valor.
As lone adventurer and as a party.
Today we deal in Honesty.
Among ourselves and with the stranger.
Today we offer Sacrifice.
To cleanse within and cleanse without.
Today we submit to Honor.
For our personal sake and for everyone.
Today we walk in Humility.
Whether alone or in company.
Today we immerse in Spirituality.
For growth in ourselves
and in society.
For living the Virtues
leads to growth.
For each of us and for all of us.
Today and every day we live with Virtue.
For a better self and a better world.

SERMON

The Springs of Virtue

Virtue springs deep within our essence Welling up into a flowing stream
Coursing forth through actions hence Reflected in our intentions seen

Virtue springs from within our hearts
Spinning forth its spreading reach Flowing out to distant parts
Touching those who're within its breach

Virtue springs when given chance Leaping forth to start to race
Spinning swirling as if to dance
Giving warmth with its blind embrace

Virtue springs so eternally new Spouting from source both old and young Given fresh hope from all or few
So let us sing of Virtue's song

A moment of silent reflections on the Virtues.
Closing Prayer

May our services have enriched our lives.
Renewed in us virtuous meaning.
Refreshed our love of Virtue.
Revived our rooting in Virtue.
Rejuvenated the growth
of Virtue in our souls.
Recharged our will to spread Virtue.
Revitalized our commitment to Virtue.
Renewed our faith in Virtue.
Replenished within us
Virtue.
Recharged our drive to live Virtue
To allow us to go forth in life
And exemplify all that is Virtue.
